FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Writing the Taboo

November 2022 – The SLF is pleased to announce our upcoming Writing the Taboo workshop, instructed by SLF founder Mary Anne Mohanraj. This workshop will delve into several taboo subjects and reflect on writers who explored subjects forbidden for the time and place. Attendees will have the opportunity to practice their own handling of taboo subjects.

The workshop is expected to last two and a half hours and will be held Saturday, November 19th, 2022, from 10:30 to 12:30 PM CST over Zoom. Writing the Taboo can accommodate up to 30 attendees.

This workshop is available to non-SLF members for $60, with discounts offered to members based on their membership tier. For more information on this, please visit speculativeliterature.org/writing-the-taboo-registration.

Launched in January 2004 to promote literary quality in speculative fiction, the Speculative Literature Foundation addresses historical inequities in access to literary opportunities for marginalized writers. Our staff and board are committed to representing racial, gender, and class diversity at all levels of our organization. This commitment is at the heart of what the Speculative Literature Foundation stands for: equal access to create and advance science fiction, fantasy, and horror literature. We strive to enable writers at any stage of their career and of any age, any ethnicity, any gender expression, from any location and of any economic or social status, who want to learn about, or create within, the speculative arts.

The SLF is a 501(c)3 non-profit, entirely supported by community donations. If you'd like to be involved with our efforts, please consider joining us as a member for $2/month, at speculativeliterature.org/membership.

The Speculative Literature Foundation is partially funded by a grant from the Oak Park Area Arts Council, Village of Oak Park, Illinois Arts Council, National Endowment for the Arts and Oak Park River Forest Community Foundation.
